

The Columbia University Greens present

Dump And Run

"We turn trash into cash for nonprofits."

Dump And Run is an innovative program which collects students' unwanted belongings at the end of the school year and resells them the next Fall, with the proceeds being donated to charity. Everybody wins: the environment, the students, and the charity.

Sale to be held late September
Exact date and location TBA

Volunteers are still needed!

Email cugreens@columbia.edu or call mike at x3-8760
<http://www.columbia.edu/cu/cssn/greens/>